

A colorful illustration of a nativity scene. In the background, a purple star shines in a window. In the foreground, a man with a beard and a purple headband stands next to a brown donkey. To the left, a woman in a green dress and a man in a red robe are looking at a white lamb. A brown donkey is lying down in the bottom right corner.

Where Is the Baby King?

Little flaps for little fingers!

Heather Henning and Alison Atkins

Where Is the Baby King?

Little flaps for little fingers!

Heather Henning and Alison Atkins

Mary lived in the village of Nazareth.
She was good and kind.

This is her house. Is Mary at home?
Open the door and look inside.

One day, Mary was visited by an angel.
“You will be the mother of a baby king,” said the angel.
“He is God’s own Son, sent down from heaven,
and you shall call him Jesus.”

